Objection To Recommendation Of Magistrate Judge

Genuine issues as to any material fact exist clearly See Magistrate's II. Discussion
States; On August 3, 2005, Dixon raised the window in his Living Area.

The Plaintiff never raised any window Plaintiff litigation States; I tried lifting the guillotine style window to retrieve, extract my index finger
Note; Ala. Dept. of Corr. Duty Officer Report states in part On the above date and time Inmate Dixon report to Sgt. Horton, Author that he was try to put the window up To the contrary The Above Time August 5, 2005
5:19 PM Friday.
Plaintiff was maimed by guillotine styled window 8-3-05
Sgt. Horton, never investigated this maiming clearly

Magistrate Ignores Defendants Callous disregard Defendants exhibit A-Court Doc No 9-2 Affidavit of Willie Thomas states, In part Defendant Thomas asserts he had no knowledge of the windows in the dorms at Elmore Corr. Facility were in such disrepair at the time this incident took place.
It was the [General Unwritten] Policy at that time that Inmate are not to Raise or Lower or adjust any window Anytime, Magistrate STATES; That Policy remains in effect to this day Is an Insult to Plaintiff Injury Clearly a genuine Issue of Material Fact Ignored
Some 3 years Justice delayed, Denied except 11th Cir.
Court Supreme Court Decisions Circumvented by Magistrate Judge Today July 26, 2008 Windows at Elmore Corr. Facility are guillotine style Inmate Open
The slightest Vibrations Make Windows slam on Simple Review will reveal 100's of Limbs, Fingers cut off
However For this Courts Review he advised the Court
This § 1983 Action is based upon the defendants "Callous Disregard and deliberate indifference" to the safety of inmate imprisoned in this great STATE OF Alabama
For this Courts Review be advised that Unwritten Rules, Policies, Contracts General or Otherwise
Have no business being Implimented in a Prisoners Environment, as They Mean Nothing, or are Void For VAGUENESS Coffman, Supra at 1060

Further Note Plaintiff litigation set forth an Petition with named Inmate dated 2005 clearly stating, No Rule, Policy exist even today July 26, 2008 Plaintiff would be remissed in moving Parties Motion and grant of Summary Judgment where A Prison Officials "deliberate Indifference to a substantial risk of serious Harm to an inmate violates the Eighth Amendment Magistrate Judge and or Prison Officials who diliberately Ignore serious Medical needs of inmates such as PHS defendants Magistrate Judge fails to Acknowledge As Medical Provider failed to Follow standard Operational Procedure with Respect to Preserving Dixon severed finger where Inmate Hudson listed as witness did attend
IN [PHS] Absence as Contracted an Material Issue serving for Review clearly an Pass the Buck Method Manipulated to effect desired Political Agenda's be advised the Court Plaintiff
Claim For Relief is serving Issues of Material Fact that deserves A Forum in any Court of Justice be advised A Copy of this Foregoing
